

Mount Saint Mary's University

Fall 2015

RST 222 Liberation Theology (3 Units)

Instructor: Dr. Laurie Wright-Garry

Graduate WEC Format: Saturdays only

Course Description (from catalogue): An investigation of the primary sources of the history, methods and theories of liberation theologies. This course will also analyze various contemporary theological literature concerned with liberation and will explore issues and challenges involved in social change.

RST 280 Pastoral Counseling (3 Units)

Instructor: Sr. Darlene Kawulok, CSJ, D. Min. and Dr. Robin Bishop

Traditional Format: Tuesday Evenings 5:30 – 8:30 pm

Course Description (from catalogue): An exploration of theological and spiritual foundations for the pastoral care relationship; investigation of particular issues which arise in pastoral ministry.

RST 243 Catholic Social Teaching: Community Virtues and Values (1 Unit)

Instructor: Ruth Sanborn, D.Be.

Graduate WEC Format: Saturday and Sunday, November 28 – 29

Course Description (from catalogue): A theological investigation of the collection of Catholic Social Teachings developed since the end of the 19th century when Christian morality, rooted in Scripture and tradition, encountered contemporary social problems.