Dear Mrs. Whitman,

On behalf of School of Foreign Languages of Gannan Normal University, we would like to thank you for the wonderful contribution of books to our university library that you made in August and October 2009 during your field study trip to China.

We are very honored and thankful for the efforts of the MBA student of Mt. St. Mary's College, Los Angeles, California. These books will be used often by our students in many fields of study including Business and English. The university faculty will also benefit from your donation. These books are not available in China so they are very valuable to us.

Gannan Normal University is located in Ganzhou, Jiangxi Province and has 12 divisions, 53 majors and over 26,000 students. The campus is big and beautiful.

We are very grateful for your contribution and welcome you to visit Gannan Normal University. Merry Xmas to you all and All the best!

Sincerely,

Guo Houwen
