

Community Outcome Rubric

Criteria	Advanced 4	Proficient 3	Developing 2	Beginning 1
Describe the community -OR- the nature of community	Clearly and thoroughly describe detailed characteristics of community	Clearly describes characteristics of community	Partially describes characteristics of community	Missing or inaccurate/incomplete characteristics provided
Explain the theory/concept	Clearly and thoroughly explains the theory or concept to be applied	Clearly explains the theory or concept to be applied	Partially explains the theory or concept to be applied	Missing or inaccurate/incomplete explanation provided
Analyze aspect of (the) community	Clearly and thoroughly analyze an aspect of (the) community using the disciplinary perspective; provides compelling evidence	Clearly analyze an aspect of (the) community using the disciplinary perspective; provides evidence	Partially analyzes an aspect of (the) community using the disciplinary perspective; provides little evidence	Missing or inaccurate/incomplete analysis provided
Develop sense of responsibility to serve	Demonstrates or applies evidence of insight into the nature of service because of learning about community	Reflects on own attitudes and beliefs about the nature of service; exhibits curiosity about what can be learned from a study of community	Has awareness of own attitudes and beliefs about the nature of service; exhibits little curiosity about what can be learned from a study of community	Is indifferent or resistant to what can be learned about the nature of service from a study of community and/or an exploration of one's own beliefs

Notes:

Rubric Development Process

The Community Rubric was developed collaboratively in Spring 2017 with the Curriculum Committee and the Assessment Committee, with additional input from the Office for Diversity, Equity and Inclusion. When the Curriculum Committee began evaluating Community courses for LACE credit, the decision was made to broaden the definition of community. Thus, the rubric was revised accordingly in January 2018.