

BA Health Care Policy Program Learning Goals and Outcomes

PROGRAM LEARNING GOAL	PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOME
Learning Goal 1 Critical analysis healthcare systems and policies: Students will demonstrate an understanding of key health care institutions and be able to construct and evaluate arguments concerning healthcare policy issues.	Learning Outcome 1.1 Demonstrate understanding of the different theoretical and institutional approaches to health care delivery.
	Learning Outcome 1.2 Demonstrate an ability to structure and evaluate arguments concerning government/market approaches to public and clinical healthcare delivery.
Learning Goal 2: Methodological Competency: Students will apply the major methodological tools in health care policy to effectively describe, explain and predict health care trends and policy outcomes.	Learning Outcome 2.1 Demonstrate an ability to read and interpret discipline specific scholarly journals.
	Learning Outcome 2.2 Ability to conceive an executable research design on a health care policy topic.
	Learning Outcome 2.3 Ability to use data to conduct and interpret quantitative analysis of health or health systems related topics.

PROGRAM LEARNING GOAL	PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOME
Learning Goal 3 Professional Competency: Students will demonstrate professional oral and written communication skills and cultural competencies needed to thrive as health care policy professionals.	Learning Outcome 3.1 Apply knowledge of the impact of policy choices on diverse populations, particularly women and girls.
	Learning Outcome 3.2 Demonstrate awareness of the implications of healthcare policy decisions on individual and communal health outcomes.
	Learning Outcome 3.3 Ability to write white papers, policy analyses, literature reviews, advocacy pieces, etc. for various political audiences/purposes.