Dear Colleagues,

The CAIC-ID Team wishes you a peaceful and very Happy Thanksgiving. We are thankful for you!

We will not hold a Faculty Friday this week as we all celebrate the holiday and refresh ourselves before the final weeks of the semester.

Faculty Friday will return next week on December 3, 2:00-3:30pm. Stay tuned for information about an upcoming session about the LACE course approval process!

In the spirit of the harvest, we are sharing a link to the recording from last week's session with Dr. Susan Salem from Counseling & Psychological Services (CPS). Susan shared some valuable information and practical keys for recognizing signs of distress with students, how to talk with them about it, and how to connect them with support.

Please also see attached for a handy "Who to call?" list of names and phone numbers related to CPS. Consider adding them to your phone!
