You can change the world by helping the next generation thrive. Prepare for a rewarding career in education with the Liberal Studies and Teacher Preparation Program.

“I started as a first-year student in the Nursing program, but it was not until I changed majors that I realized what I’m capable of. Being a Liberal Studies major feels empowering. It helped me find my voice and know that I am capable of making a difference.” – Karina Paredes, Class of ‘21

Start taking practical, engaging classes with a welcoming cohort of future teachers.
