Course Description

EDU 234B is primarily a supervised clinical experience in a setting in which candidates apply the information learned in the previous course in Auditory-Verbal Principles, 234A, however, content areas from all courses in the MSMU/JTC Graduate Program are involved as well. For example, the candidate will apply previous course content in audiological management, child development, positive behavior support, assessments in all areas, lesson planning, parent coaching, bilingual teaching approaches, and literacy development. The course also consists of a lecture component, where candidates advance their theoretical and practical knowledge of speech and auditory assessment, development, and remediation, parent support and guidance, as well as other topics needed for implementing LSL goals.

The LSL Intervention experience provides the opportunity for you to work directly with a child and a parent/family utilizing listening and spoken language strategies learned in previous classes. Families come from a wide variety of backgrounds. The children and their families present with the kinds of backgrounds that you will encounter in your teaching positions. All the children's parents, however, have chosen Listening and Spoken Language Intervention, because they want their children to maximize their use of audition and spoken language. Preparation is the key to a good LSL experience. Your previous courses in the Program have prepared you for the LSL experience (e.g., assessment, writing goals, and writing reports in your parent-infant, language, and AV courses, diagnostic teaching in parent-infant and preschool practicum, etc.). Preparation will include writing lesson plans, utilizing materials that support parent/ child/ grad student interactions, researching topics on the internet, practicing administering assessments, etc. using a teletherapy model. The primary goal of the LSL Intervention is to allow the student scholar to practice everything s/he knows and needs to know when teaching children with hearing loss utilizing auditory verbal strategies:

- Assessments in various areas
- Identifying IEP goals/objectives based on assessment results
- Writing lesson plans in various areas, based on assessments, goals, objectives: Language, speech, auditory, cognitive skills, and parent skills
- Writing a report that could be used professionally
- Creating an appropriate learning environment
- Practicing Diagnostic Teaching (diagnosis and remediation on the spot)
- Using a variety of appropriate teaching materials and teaching strategies
- Using a variety of appropriate behavior management strategies
- Collecting and using a variety of appropriate resources to enhance teaching
- Guiding parents in an empathetic, supportive, and nonjudgmental manner
- Reflection on and evaluation of ones' own teaching
- Utilizing auditory verbal strategies

Course Purpose

The course meets part of the standards for the CCTC Preliminary - Education Specialist Standards for Deaf and Hard of Hearing Credential with added authorizations in English Learners and Autism Spectrum Disorders.

Course Objectives – Aligned with Candidate Unit & Program Outcomes

Assessment of Student Learning Outcomes: Student learning is at the core of the MSMU mission. Faculty have developed a plan to assess the student learning outcomes that represent the knowledge, skills and attitudes expected of MSMU's graduate students. In each class, one or more student learning outcomes will be assessed. Performance in class/lab assignments will be evaluated utilizing a listening and spoken language checklist as well as participation in lectures, group discussions and reflections on students' execution of lesson planning and performance.

Course Outcomes Aligned with Standards: This course meets the standards for the following organizations in preparing teachers of children who are deaf or hard of hearing:

- MSMU Graduate Program Learning Goals and Student Learning Outcomes
- California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CCTC) Standards:
 - Preliminary Credential: Education Specialist/Deaf & Hard of Hearing
 - Added Authorization in English Language Learners
 - Added Authorization in Autism Spectrum Disorders
- California Standards for the Teaching Profession (CSTPs)
- California Teaching Performance Expectations (TPEs)
- Council on Exceptional Children (CEC)
- Council on Education of the Deaf (CED)

Course Requirements

Lesson Plans

The LSL intervention consists of working with a family and a child. Lesson plans for each session must be approved by instructor before they are taught. No exceptions. You must turn in corrected lesson plans each day, even if your child was absent and your lesson plans have already been graded.

Family Notebooks

You will keep a well-organized, neat, tabbed notebook on the family and child. It will consist of all information gathered on the child/family as well as all lesson plans. These are always to be kept with you for your reference and for the supervisor's. Each lesson plan (with revisions) will be kept in its separate section so you (and the supervisor) can flip to it when you teach that lesson. Notebooks must be kept organized, up to date, and available for the supervisor to review during your LSL session.

Report on One Child/Family

A final report, written in a professional manner, using appropriate grammar, will be computer-generated for and approved by the instructor before being mailed to the child's parents.

Video

You are required to submit 30 minutes of a session using video technology. You will reflect on the session identifying the LSL strategies that you incorporated into your lesson, evaluate your professional behavior, the parent and child's interactions and identify two to three things that you would do differently in the future and or what you have learned from working with the child and family.

Department of Education Candidate Dispositions Statement

Mount Saint Mary's University assesses candidates' dispositions in addition to their knowledge and skills. This approach is in keeping with a national trend in which candidates are expected to demonstrate an orientation to learning that supports student achievement. Specific dispositions are determined by each teacher preparation program.*

MSMU Education Candidates are expected to:

1. Demonstrate classroom behaviors consistent with fairness and the belief that all students can learn
2. Demonstrate respect for children, families, communities, colleagues, and supervisors
3. Conduct and represent oneself in a professional manner (including dress, behavior, and attitude)

4. Exemplify ethical behavior and integrity
5. Engage in self-reflective practice and professional growth
6. Attend to deadlines, punctuality, attendance and participation expectations
7. Follow coursework and fieldwork assignment directions given by instructors and advisors
8. Receive and make use of constructive feedback from instructors and advisors with openness and interest in improvement
9. Follow through with suggestions and/or direct instructions from instructors, advisors, and College staff
10. Be engaged and collaborative during discussions and activities required by courses and fieldwork experiences
11. Communicate clearly (both orally and in writing) with College staff, instructors, and advisors
12. Reflect the expected dispositions in work with students, families, and communities

At Mount Saint Mary's University, we follow a process of formative feedback in relationship to dispositions:

1. We believe that candidates' approach to all aspects of their teacher preparation program (advisement, in class experiences, fieldwork experiences, and communication with MSMU faculty and staff) are appropriate evidence upon which to base assessment.
2. All candidates are apprised of the MSMU Candidate Dispositions in order to ensure full transparency of expectations.
3. All candidates are apprised/reminded that they will be evaluated on the expected dispositions via the Education Department's newsletter.
4. In order to support candidates to be successful in the program, candidates will receive a Notice of Concern if an issue surfaces indicating expectations are not being met.
5. If an acknowledged pattern of concern develops that is not remedied by the candidate, a candidate may be dismissed from the teacher preparation program and/or MSMU may determine not to sponsor the candidate's application for a teaching credential with the State. This could occur irrespective of how much of the program requirements have been completed.

MSMU and Education Department Policies

Academic Integrity: Candidates are expected to adhere to the MSMU statements on Academic Integrity published in the 2010-2012 MSMU catalog, which is available online at <http://www.MSMU.la.edu/catalog/2010-2012/4076.htm>

Academic Freedom: Students' and faculty's freedom of speech is constitutionally protected, so students and faculty are free to take reasoned exception to the data or views offered in any course of study and to reserve judgment about matters of opinion – and allow the same freedom for others. See MSMU's Student Handbook for further discussion.

Technology Policy: Candidates are expected to adhere to the MSMU technology policy as stated in the MSMU Graduate Student Handbook, which is available online at <http://www.MSMU.la.edu/graduate-programs/student-handbook.asp>

Internet Courseware Platform:

It is important to be able to use the Angel system to access lessons and templates, discussion boards, and other class information. All work for online courses should be submitted online through Angel. Please ask for assistance if you are experiencing difficulties in posting.

Online Participation

It is your responsibility to check out all online components of each course ahead of time, and to verify that your personal computer is compatible with course requirements. Keep in mind that technology is variable and may not always work. Plan to submit your work in a timely fashion. Do not wait until the last minute to submit your work. You are required to have an alternative back-up plan that allows you to have access to a reliable, functioning computer somewhere else in case of power black outs, technology problems, etc.

When posting on the discussion forum, please use "Netiquette." Be polite and respectful, use professional grammar and correct spelling (use Spell Check), don't write in all caps (it feels as if you're shouting), don't write in exotic fonts, and be sure to sign your name.

Students with Disabilities:

MSMU, in compliance with state and federal laws and regulations, does not discriminate based on disability. If you are a student with a documented disability, please see the Director of the Doheny Learning Resource Center Building (#3 on the Doheny Campus), to decide for classroom accommodations. Additional disability related information and policies can be found in the Student Handbook.

Learning Resource Center: Contact the Doheny or Chalon Learning Resource Centers to arrange personal tutoring or assistance for you according to your needs at (213) 488-2692.

Absences: Regular attendance is especially important in the MSMU/JTC DHH Graduate Program, since each class, experience, assignment, and discussion builds on every one that comes before, using a spiral curriculum model. Students who miss more than 20% of the instructional time in any one course may be administratively dropped from the course. This represents and is in accordance with the university policy as stated in the MSMU catalog.
