Course Description for the Onsite Program

This course is a culminating practicum experience in teaching children who are deaf and hard of hearing in elementary school settings and the companion class to EDU 239A, DHH: Curricula for Learners 5-22.

The focus is on a systematic sequence of observations, applications, and evaluations of various pedagogical and methodological approaches in a variety of settings with various types of children who are deaf and hard of hearing. The candidate writes reflections regarding the observations of educational settings in the greater Southern California region (See schedule for observations/fieldwork). The candidate plans instruction for the class based on state-mandated content area standards.

Theory, practice, and research are integrated into activities designed to provide D/HH education specialists with a multiplicity of strategies and techniques for working with students, paraeducators, general educators, and ancillary professionals across the spectrum of education options. This course stresses the implementation of individual educational plans (IEPs) and the application of the California State Standards in the DHH classroom.

The course also includes seminar classes related to the practicum experience. Candidates will participate in several practicum placements to meet credential requirements:

1. Observation and fieldwork at various placements to be arranged by faculty. The placements will include the range of service delivery options for DHH students required by the Education Specialist DHH Credential:
 - a. Residential school (ASL). A reflection on the experience is required.
 - b. Day school/special day classes (ASL and LSL, preschool, elementary & secondary). 3 reflections of the experiences are required.
 - c. Inclusion/mainstream/team teaching classes
 - d. Transition Planning and Placement (secondary)
 - e. Placements for students with additional needs (ASD, ELL, etc.)
 - f. Community agencies for Deaf individuals
2. A one-day tag-along fieldwork placement with an itinerant teacher of the deaf. A reflection on the experience is required.
3. A one-week teaching experience in a general education classroom at a site to be arranged by faculty. A child who is deaf or hard of hearing will be a student in each of the participating classrooms. The candidate will collaborate with the general education teacher and other professionals at the school site and gain knowledge about assessment, planning, behavior management, adaptations, and curricular issues in the general education classroom. The candidates will write a reflection of the experience.
4. A one-week teaching experience in a sign language DHH education classroom at a site to be arranged by faculty. The candidates will collaborate with the DHH teacher and other professionals at the school site and gain knowledge about assessment, planning, behavior management, adaptations, and curricular issues in the sign language education classroom. The candidate will write a reflection of the experience.
5. A twelve-week teaching experience in a DHH education classroom using listening and spoken language at a site to be arranged by faculty. The candidates will collaborate with the DHH teacher and other professionals at the school site and gain knowledge about assessment, planning, behavior management, adaptations, and curricular issues in a listening and spoken language education classroom. The candidate will write a reflection of the experience.
6. Candidates who demonstrate aptitude for independent planning and comprehensive understanding of the Common Core State Standards and who have passed all qualifying examinations may qualify to apply for an Internship with an approved school or school district. This assignment will last 2 semesters and candidates will participate in the first semester seminars

Using sources that are research-based, the student candidates will analyze and synthesize the information presented. Lessons in this course will develop structural knowledge of conflicting perspectives, critical thinking skills, and an interdisciplinary understanding of the issues in the field of education of children with hearing loss. Within an interdisciplinary professional development school model, candidates will learn specific information to build structural knowledge and demonstrate skill at integrating evidence-based practices, adult learning principles, and a comprehensive understanding of course topics.

Practicum: A 350-hour practicum commitment in order to complete the assignments and meet the performance-based competencies for this course is required. Intern candidates must meet with the instructor to determine if their district contract special education placement meets all or some of the fieldwork requirements for this course.

Practicum Validation: Candidates must complete the Observation Log and Student Teaching Log for the completed practicum. The Master Teacher will complete the Master Teacher Log. These forms can be found in the Candidate Handbook.

Course Purpose

Initial Program: Meets part of CTC Preliminary - Education Specialist Standards for Deaf and Hard of Hearing teacher certification in special education.

Course Objectives—Aligned with Candidate Unit & Program Outcomes

Assessment of Student Learning Outcomes

Student learning is at the core of the MSMU mission. Faculty have developed a plan to assess the student learning outcomes that represent the knowledge, skills and attitudes expected of MSMU's graduate students. In each class, one or more student learning outcomes will be assessed. Some of the class assignments may be used to evaluate overall student learning and to improve teaching and learning in each class, the Education Department, and throughout the College.

Course requirements are built around the professional standards of the organizations listed below. The requirements provide an opportunity for candidates to demonstrate on-going growth towards becoming a credentialed teacher, and for degree candidates to demonstrate their scholarly development. Grade assignment is based on the quality of the demonstrated performance by each individual in relationship to the stated course requirements.

- California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CCTC) Standards:
 - Preliminary Credential: Education Specialist/Deaf & Hard of Hearing
- California Standards for the Teaching Profession (CSTPs)
- California Teaching Performance Expectations (TPEs)
- Council on Exceptional Children (CEC)
- Council on Education of the Deaf (CED)
- A.G. Bell Academy for Listening and Spoken Language

In addition to course-based performance evaluation by the course instructor, the Centerpiece Assignments identified in this course represent the performance-based product that is used to evaluate your teaching. A rubric-based assessment developed around the special education program professional standards will be used by program faculty to evaluate your Centerpiece artifact at the culmination of your program of study.

Course Structure

The course will consist of the following components:

1. Program Observations: Students will meet JTC Faculty at schools and venues that serve children who are deaf or hard of hearing and their families. Schools and venues will provide tours and discussions of the programs offered at the sites. Students are responsible for reflections on 4 of the observations, one of which is required (CSDR).
2. Practicum Experiences: Student teaching in a classroom of DHH students ages 5- 22 under the supervision of a credentialed teacher of the deaf. Student will observe, write lesson plans, implement lesson plans, critique lessons, immerse herself/himself in the life of the classroom and school. The Master Teacher and the Course Instructor will each complete a set of evaluations (mid-assignment and final) and conference with the student on the evaluations. The scores from these evaluations will be used in assigning a grade for the course (see page 8).

Students will write one reflection for a week-long experience in a TC DHH Classroom and a second reflection for a week-long experience in a General Education Classroom in which a DHH student is included. Rubrics are provided in advance for both reflections.

3. Practicum Notebook: The candidate will generate a notebook over the period of the practicum that will reflect the entire experience. It will include all formal and informal assessment information on each child (all identifying information removed) in the classroom (e.g., audiological, language, speech, auditory skills, cognition, etc.), all lesson plans in each area, all observation logs, all evaluations, all conference forms with field supervisor. Additional handouts and references will be added to the notebook.
4. Practicum Video: In consultation with the master teacher and university field supervisor, the candidate will choose a classroom lesson to videotape and showcase acquired Teacher Performance Expectations combined with Listening and Spoken Language teaching strategies. The candidate will conduct a self-evaluation, using the Auditory-Verbal Educator Teaching Behaviors Checklist. The self-evaluation will be discussed with the supervisors, in conjunction with the MSMU Education Specialist Credential Program - DHH Supervised Teaching Feedback Form completed by the supervisors on the same videotape.
5. Conferences with the instructor: During seminar dates at JTC and on the campus where the student is student teaching, the instructor will meet with the student to discuss progress, critique lessons, answer questions.
6. Conferences with master teacher: Student will arrange time to meet with the master teacher AT THE MASTER TEACHER'S CONVENIENCE to discuss progress, critique lessons, and answer questions.
7. Seminars: Students are responsible for all the readings as assigned by field supervisors to fully participate in class discussion of reading materials. Student candidates are responsible for staying current with all assignments from the Literacy Workshop component of the Seminar: readings, written assignments, discussion in seminar, application of content to their student teaching placements.
8. Attendance and Class Participation: Since this is a practicum course, the required number of hours must be met, regular attendance, as well as active and positive participation throughout is expected and required. In the event of an illness or emergency that will prevent the student teaching from attending class, the master teacher and university field supervisor will be notified before class starts. Students will attend seminar class one afternoon a week for 2-3 hours for the duration of the student teaching assignment. Additional readings and assignments due each week will be discussed in seminar meetings. Any absences from classroom participation must be made up.

9. Collaboration: Students will create a chart identifying school personnel with whom they have collaborated or intend to collaborate over the course of their practicum. The chart will include information about the roles of the professionals and the student candidates' learning.
10. Program Observations: Students will meet JTC Faculty at schools and venues that serve children who are deaf or hard of hearing and their families. Schools and venues will provide tours and discussions of the programs offered at the sites. Students are responsible for reflections on 4 of the observations, one of which is required (CSDR).
