Education Department Philosophy:

MSMU Education Department courses are meant to be laboratories of learning. Our hope is that the activities and materials included will serve your learning goals as you explore the various course topics. Our intent is that students from all diverse backgrounds and perspectives be well-served, that students' learning needs be addressed both in and out of class, and that the diversity that students bring to each course be viewed as a resource, strength and benefit. Throughout the semester, please feel free to let your course instructor know ways to improve the effectiveness of the course for you personally, or for other students or student groups, if you have any suggestions.

Investment in Inclusivity:

- This class aims to be an anti-discriminatory environment that is inclusive of differences of race, ethnicity and national origins, gender and gender identity, sexuality, class and religion. The success of this expectation relies on the support and understanding of everyone in the class. We seek to establish a community where we engage in critical dialogue and active listening. While all are expected to make their best effort to be respectful, we understand that someone may say something that results in unintentional offense and hurt feelings. We invite everyone to adopt a stance of assumed positive intent that seeks greater knowledge and understanding.
- All people have the right to be addressed and referred to in accordance with their personal identity. You may choose to indicate the name that you prefer to be called and, if you choose, to identify pronouns with which you would like to be addressed.
- It is the policy of MSMU to permit students to observe holidays set aside by their chosen religious faith. If you plan to be absent from class on your religious holiday, please make arrangements with the course instructor in advance.

Student Support Statements:

- MSMU has a Minors on Campus policy statement published in the Student Handbook that allows for faculty discretion. If you are a parent and are concerned that childcare needs could disrupt your ability to attend class, please reach out so we can create a plan in advance for potential emergencies.
- If personal challenges related to health issues might affect the ability to perform in this class, please know that there are resources to assist you with appropriate accommodations.
- Any student who has difficulty affording groceries or accessing sufficient food to eat every day, or who lacks a safe and stable place to live, and believes this may affect their performance in the course, is urged to contact the Dean of Student Life on their respective campus for support. Chalon Campus: Laura Crow, Dean of Student Life 310-954-4133 and lcrow@msmu.edu. Doheny Campus/WEC & Online/Sunset Gower/Graduate: Jessica Cuevas, Dean of Student Life 213-477-2570 and jcuevas@msmu.edu. Also, please feel free to notify your course instructor or program director if you are comfortable doing so.

Course Description:

Supervised teaching is designed as the culminating experience in the teacher preparation program and provides opportunities for the candidate to integrate and refine the many competencies acquired throughout the program. The goal of supervised teaching is to ensure that the candidate is prepared to assume the full-time responsibilities of a classroom. In EDU 1/364A and EDU 1/364B the student assumes the responsibilities of the classroom teacher and is under the direct supervision of an experienced and effective teacher and a university supervisor at MSMU. Students register for EDU 1/364A for the first half of the semester and for EDU 1/364B for the second half of the semester. Full-time teaching is required along with participation in the seminar and the TPA Labs (EDU 1/210 and EDU 1/209A & 1/209B). The student must have access to daily transportation to the fieldwork site.

Course Objectives and Student Learning Outcomes:

The objectives of this course are:

Demonstrate the competencies of a novice teacher and the readiness to serve as a middle or high school teacher in your content area.

Student Learning Outcomes. In order to meet these objectives, students will:

- Engage and support all students in learning
- Create and maintain effective environments for student learning
- Apply subject-specific pedagogy and organize subject matter for student learning
- Plan instruction and design learning experiences for all students
- Assess student learning
- Develop as a professional educator

Required Texts (available at the Doheny Bookstore):

- There are no required textbooks for this course. However, texts from previous courses may serve as important resources.

Course Requirements:

1. Pre-service candidates are expected to gradually assume all teaching responsibilities. Timing will vary in accordance with school demands, the Cooperating Teacher's classroom schedule, and the appropriateness for the individual student teacher. The Suggested Timeline of Responsibilities for Supervised Teaching provides more detailed information on this topic.
2. All candidates are expected to maintain open communication with their Cooperating Teacher and University Supervisor. It is the candidates' responsibility, in collaboration with their Cooperating Teacher and University Supervisor, to arrange and confirm visits to the classroom by the University Supervisor. Six visits during the first half of the semester and six more during the second half of the semester.
3. Student teacher must maintain the Student Teaching Log. If there are questions about this log, please direct your questions to the fieldwork coordinator.
4. Candidates must prepare written plans, using the MSMU Lesson Plan format, for each visit by the University Supervisor. Plans are due to the University Supervisor by email the night before the observation visit. These plans must be discussed and approved by the Cooperating Teacher in advance. Other lesson plans should be discussed in advance and written-up in the manner requested by the Cooperating Teacher.

Required Field Experience:

Pre-service candidates -- This field experience requires student teachers to be at their assigned school site during the whole day. They must arrange to arrive at the school 30 minutes prior to the start of the school day. Student teachers must go to the school office each day to complete the sign-in procedure. Student teachers should plan to stay until planning and preparations are complete, which could be 4:30 in the afternoon. When deemed appropriate by the Cooperating Teacher and school administration, student teachers also participate in meetings, professional development, and school events. Placement information will be provided by the Fieldwork Coordinator: at the beginning of the semester.

Course Format:

This course does not meet in person on the Doheny campus. All course documents will be available on Canvas. However, all required lesson plans will be submitted digitally to the university supervisor.

Classroom Policies:

- Submitting work: Lesson plans submitted by email to university supervisor
- Formatting: Use MSMU Lesson Plan template. All lessons should be thoughtfully prepared, written in standard academic English, free of grammatical and spelling errors, and typed.
- Written feedback: You will receive lesson feedback from the university supervisor after each lesson observation.
- Attendance: Student teachers are expected to be at the school for each and every day of their placements. In the case of an emergency absence, in addition to the professional courtesy of contacting the school and the Cooperating Teacher, you must contact the Fieldwork Coordinator, Kelli Agner at kagner@msmu.edu or (213) 477 2988 to report your absence. More than two emergency absences in a course will result in a “no credit” grade for the course. If you wish to contest the policy for any reason (i.e.-illness) you would need to file an academic petition, gain support from the Fieldwork Coordinator, and contact the Department Chair.

- Academic Integrity: Students are expected to adhere to their MSMU statements on Academic Integrity in the MSMU catalog and Student Handbook. This includes avoiding plagiarism and constructing your best work on each assignment. Papers and other work including images, should not be copied from the Internet. Infractions may be addressed by the MSMU administration and possibly include an AI Board review. For clarification on what constitutes plagiarism, students are encouraged to review the Preventing Plagiarism page on TurnItIn.com (see <https://www.turnitin.com/solutions/plagiarism-prevention>).
- Academic Freedom: Students’ and faculty’s freedom of speech is constitutionally protected, so they are free to take reasoned exception to the data or views offered in any course of study and to reserve judgment about matters of opinion—and allow the same freedom for others. See MSMU’s Student Handbook for further discussion.
- Calendar Verification: Please review the schedule in the tentative course calendar carefully. Education Department course calendars may not align with the generally published MSMU holidays and break schedule due to the nature of a teacher preparation program. You are expected to be at your assigned school site on all days that the teachers are in attendance during the date range of your placement.
 - Fall Mid-Semester Break: Some Graduate-level Education courses meet on the Thursday of mid-semester break. You will be expected at your placement site.
 - Spring Break: The MSMU Spring Break is observed for all education courses that meet on campus and the campus will also be closed. Courses involving other sites, such as for supervised teaching, will take their breaks consistent with the districts in which they take place. The result may be that those doing student teaching may not have any week that does not include Mount course meetings or obligations.
 - Study Days: The “Study Days” policy does not apply to Education courses (including those cross-listed with UG students).
 - Finals Week: All Education evening courses meet as regularly scheduled during finals week.
- Candidate Dispositions: The Education Department has adopted a Dispositions Statement that outlines expectations of all credential and graduate students. (See the Education Department Student Handbook.) An assessment process exists so that candidates will receive formative feedback through a Notice of Concern, if necessary, in order to support candidates to meet expectations.
- Certificate of Clearance: In order to demonstrate eligibility to complete all elements of an Education course requiring public school fieldwork, students must submit a copy of a CCTC-issued Certificate of Clearance or valid California teaching credential and valid TB test. This is a non-negotiable state requirement.

- Incompletes: Incompletes are meant to provide support for students who have experienced an emergency in their lives and need special consideration on a case-by-case basis. An application for an Incomplete may be granted only if the student:
 - files the application no later than 1 week prior to finals
 - has completed the majority of requirements
 - on the basis of the work completed, has a passing grade in the class (CR). This is not necessarily the same as the default grade.
 - is prevented from completing the final requirements by the end of the scheduled placement date.
- Quality of Work: The MSMU Education Department expects all credential and masters candidates to demonstrate their ability to act as literacy models for K-12 students by submitting high quality, written assignments and projects. Candidates with assignments turned in with serious writing errors, including high numbers of typos, will either be asked to resubmit the assignment.
- Students with Disabilities: Mount Saint Mary's University, Los Angeles is committed to ensuring the full participation of all students in its programs. If you have a documented disability (chronic, medical, physical, learning, psychological, or temporary), or think you may have a disability and need a reasonable accommodation to participate in class, complete course requirements, or access the University's programs or services; contact Disability Services (DS) as soon as possible. To receive an accommodation, you must register with DS. DS works with students confidentially and does not disclose any disability-related information without student consent. DS coordinates and promotes disability accommodations and awareness and works in partnership with faculty and all other student service offices. For further information about services for students with disabilities, contact DS at the Chalon Academic Support Center, H207, (310) 954-4142, or at the Doheny Student Resource Center, Building 3, (213) 477-2690. You can also email for more information at disability@msmu.edu.
- Accommodation Policy: Students with disabilities should consult the MSMU policies regarding commitment to equal educational opportunities for disabled students in the MSMU catalog.
- Technology Policy: Candidates are expected to adhere to the MSMU technology policy as stated in the MSMU Student Handbook.

Suggested Timeline of Responsibilities for Supervised Teaching

Over the course of the student teaching assignment, the student teacher should gradually be given the opportunity to assume all teaching responsibilities. The following are general guidelines for the supervised teaching assignment. For some candidates these will vary in accordance with school demands, the Cooperating Teacher's classroom schedule, and the appropriateness for the individual student teacher. During the period of the student teaching placement, the student teacher must engage in a minimum of four weeks of solo or co-teaching.

Solo or co-teaching includes those activities in which the candidate plans or co-plans the lessons, delivers the lessons, and assesses or grades student work. During this period, the candidate is expected to fully participate within the school environment and experience and understand the full range of activities and responsibilities of being a teacher of record. The solo teaching experience must provide the candidate with an authentic teaching experience and the opportunity to demonstrate pedagogical competence.

The minimum time requirement (4 weeks) for the solo or co-teaching period is to ensure that the candidate experiences the full range of instruction rather than sporadic lesson delivery. During this time the candidate should be fully responsible for: planning lessons based on the students in their classroom, delivering the lessons, monitoring student progress toward achieving the academic goals included in the lessons, informal and formal assessment of students, and reflection of their teaching practice.

As long as this full range of instruction is occurring, the program may allow a candidate's solo or co-teaching experience to be either contiguous or divided into one or two-week segments, as appropriate. To support candidates completing the CalTPA, at least one week should take place around the fourth or fifth week of the placement. The remaining weeks should be planned for and must be completed by the end of the placement. Any questions about this requirement should be promptly discussed with the Fieldwork Coordinator.

Student teachers are expected to arrive at school at least 30 minutes before the school day begins, or earlier if requested by the Cooperating Teacher. She/he is responsible to stay after school until the Cooperating Teacher thinks planning and preparation are adequate.
