

Mount Saint Mary's University
M.C.A.R.E.S - Mount Community Assault Response & Education
Support Team - Title IX

The Mount Community Assault Response & Education Support Team (M.C.A.R.E.S.) is comprised of individuals who are trained to provide students with information and assist with obtaining information and support from available resources at the University and in the Los Angeles community. University Reporting Sources will also provide students with information about the process associated with making a report or a formal complaint with the University or with a law enforcement agency. Although these reporting sources will endeavor to maintain the privacy of the matter and the individuals involved, they may be required to disclose necessary information that is disclosed to them to other University officials. University Reporting Sources include:
