When Unbaptized Adults & Baptized Christians are in a Formation Process Together

October 6, 2018 • 9am to 4pm

While not preferred, pastoral realities often necessitate that unbaptized adults are together with baptized Christians seeking to enter the Catholic Church. This workshop will explore both liturgical and catechetical issues when a parish's adult formation process is done in a combined form.

Quando Adultos no Bautizados y Cristianos Bautizados Están en un Proceso de Formación Juntos

2 de Marzo de 2019 • 9am a 4pm

Aunque no se prefiere, las realidades pastorales a menudo requieren que los adultos no bautizados estén junto con los cristianos bautizados que buscan ingresar a la Iglesia Católica. Este taller explorará los asuntos litúrgicos y catequéticos cuando el proceso de formación de adultos de una parroquia se realiza en forma combinada.

RCIA – Sponsors, the Pre-catechumenate, Discernment

April 6, 2019 • 9am to 4pm

In many parishes, there are three “underdeveloped” aspects of the RCIA: the crucial role of sponsors, the development of a robust and enriching pre-catechumenate, and integration of prayerful discernment throughout the process. This workshop will give you insight into the reason why these areas are important, and will propose practical steps for bringing the Rite's vision to life in your parish formation process.

Fr. Ronald Oakham, O.Carm. Fr. Ronald Oakham, O.Carm., has been a leader in Initiation ministry for many years and in many settings. In addition to serving with the North American Forum for the Catechumenate as the Director of Institutes, Team member and Board member, he has been the Director of the Catechumenate for the Archdiocese of Newark. A strong advocate for a renewed Baptismal spirituality, he is the author of One at the Table: The Reception of Baptized Christian. He is currently the pastor of St. Cyril of Alexandria parish in Tucson, Arizona.
