Frequently asked questions about applying to Master of Science in Counseling Psychology?

What are MSMU's application requirements?

To apply to MSMU's graduate psychology program, you must meet minimum graduate admission requirements.

1. A baccalaureate or professional degree from a regionally accredited U.S. college or university, earned by the expected date of entry.
2. A minimum of a 3.0 cumulative grade-point average (GPA) on a 4.0 scale. If your GPA does not meet the minimum requirement – or if you believe that your GPA is not a valid indicator of your ability – you may submit an application, and provide a brief statement (no more than one page) explaining circumstances or limitations that affected your GPA.

When should I apply for graduate admission?

You should begin the application process one year prior to your planned start date at MSMU. This will help ensure a smooth transition to graduate school as well as increase your scholarship opportunities.

How do I apply for graduate psychology admission to MSMU?

If you meet university admission requirements, you can apply for admission by visiting www.msmu.edu/apply.
